The promise of Jesus: to be with Him

Looking Towards Easter

Jesus Christ truly could have been the superstar - instead, he humbled himself and gave his life to ransom many. We celebrate his gift of life through his death and resurrection each year at Easter.

This year, we will prepare for the Easter season by joining the audience of Christ in the powerful teaching recorded in the Gospel of John, chapter 14. He made two promises: those who believe in him will be with him forever, and, in the meantime, he will be with them by the Holy Spirit. Amazing grace. Amazing gift. Amazing presence.

(Note: I'll be on Spring Break vacation until April 5 - thank you for praying for Andrea and our family as we have a break. Thanks, Greg Laing)

Bible Reading Plan this term

This year we have read, as a church, Colossians and Romans. Now we are reading the Gospel of John to prepare for Easter. Catch up if need be and join the adventure of reading through the life of Christ from John. If you don't have a Bible, we'd be happy to give you one for free – just ask at the church. You can read online as well: biblegateway.com

- March 15-21: John 1-5
- March 22-28: John 6-10
- March 29-April 4: John 11-15
- April 5-11: John 16-18
- April 12-18: John 19-21

Focus on Community Life

We have a number of small groups in our church that exist to gather people for encouragement, friendship, prayer and discussion about biblical topics.

A new group will begin very soon in Kitsilano, nearby the church – please contact Deborah Phillips to get involved with this or other community groups:
